A new addition to the DGM Growers commercial team

We're delighted to announce that Simon Scott has been appointed as Business Unit Manager of DGM Growers and will be working with our commercial team based at The Fresh Produce Centre in Paddock Wood, Kent.

Simon comes to us from our sister company Mack and has 20 years experience in the commercial sector of produce, most recently as Commercial Manager of the stone fruit team.

Simon comments "I am pleased to be joining DGM Growers and working with their diverse customer base and wide range of niche products. The team have had a strong past year and I am looking forward to helping them achieve even more success over 2016."
